

SHRI R. SUBRAMANIAM, Principal Secretary (RD), Govt. of Andhra Pradesh and Ms. LAKSHMI DURGA CHAVA, Director, SERP

Shri R Subramaniam is working with 1 million Self Help Groups in Rural areas for implementing Government Programme through People. He is implementing MGNREGS where innovations in the field of programme implementation are promoted – Covering :

1. Mobile based IT infrastructure
2. Financial management
3. Organization of workers into labour groups.

Ms. Lakshmi Durga Chava, Director (Community Managed Health and Nutrition), Society for Elimination of Rural Poverty (SERP) has been working with SERP since 2002 and has primarily involved in planning and implementation of community managed interventions to address health and nutrition issues in rural and tribal areas of Andhra Pradesh. Prior to joining SERP worked with CARE ( 1992-94) and the department of Women Development and Child Welfare, Andhra Pradesh and was responsible for implementation of ICDS program(1994-2002). As a long-serving Government employee, she has extensive and valuable insight into the Indian bureaucracy and a practical approach to making things work. Ms .Lakshmi has a multidisciplinary background in Nutrition and Public Health. She had undergone trainings at national and international on reaching MDGs.